

Resolve It, Inc.

“Education and Resolution Not Litigation”

Resolve It, Inc.'s Vincent Petraro honored by Community Mayors

The Community Mayors, Inc. surprised Vincent L. Petraro, Resolve It, Inc.'s Program Development Coordinator, on the evening of Saturday, November 12, 2011. Vincent, who served as Master of Ceremonies at the Mayors' Charity Ball for Children With Special Needs, received the all-volunteer organization's “Hon. Joseph Triosi Award” presented “To A Mayor Representing Integrity, Compassion and Loyalty.” Resolve It, Inc. congratulates our colleague who serves as Community Mayor of Midtown and recently became Deputy Chief Mayor of this 501-C-3.

Below Vincent Petraro holds his Hon. Joseph Triosi Award flanked by fellow Community Mayor (of Westbury), Resolve It, Inc. Director Joshua E. Bienstock (left), and Resolve It Inc. Government & Public Affairs Coordinator Corey Bearak.

Community Mayors, Inc., an all-volunteer 501-C-3 organization, has been providing recreational therapy for children with special needs from the New York metro area for more than fifty years.

The Community Mayors has a Board of Directors which includes three officers and twelve members who serve three year terms on a rotating basis. Approximately one hundred Mayors and Associate Mayors represent communities from New York and the tri-state area. With no paid staff, all money it raises goes directly to benefit the children.

Over 50,000 special needs children a year benefit from its numerous events which include Operation Santa Claus, and outings to such memorable places as the Bronx Zoo, the New York Aquarium and the Circus at Madison Square Garden.

Resolve It, Inc. proudly supports the Community Mayors and congratulates Vincent on his honor and new position with the Mayors. Forest Hills, Queens-based Resolve It, Inc. specializes in workplace dispute prevention and resolution through education and mediation!